

Nazareth, Paper Sun

There a paper sun
In a paper sky
There an empty place
And I don't know why
That paper sun
In that paper sky
Can help me now she's gone
I on my own
Can help me now, I all alone
There a painted moon
In a painted night
There an empty plate
And it doesn't seem right
That painted moon
In that painted night
Can help me now she's gone
I on my own
Can help me now, I all alone
And all the pain
And all the rain that falls
Can bring her back
She doesn't want me at all
There a falling star
And it won't touch down
There an empty face
Another lonely clown
That falling star that won't touch down
And all the pain
And all the rain that falls
Can bring her back
She doesn't want me at all
And all the pain
And all the rain that falls
Can bring her back
She doesn't want me at all
And all the pain
And all the rain that falls
Can bring her back
She doesn't want me at all...ll..ll
Ahhhh
