Neal McCoy, Intro (General Tommy Franks)

My name's Tommy Franks, an' my Daddy's name was Ray. Ray was a farm boy, a cowboy an' a banker. A clerk, a roughneck, a driller, A long-haul driver, a soldier an' a mechanic. He was also a friend to everybody he ever met. Ray taught me the value of Faith an' family, The American flag, hard work, honesty an' a good dog. I hope my Daddy Ray wasn't the last of a dyin' breed.
