

Neal McCoy, Should Of Happened That Way

The moment you came home the other night I could tell that something wasnt right I asked you what the silence was about then all i did was listen While you poured your heart out

Chorus:

And then your eyes looked into mine and we saw forever was right there all the time when i held you in my arms it said all there was to say
It should of happened that way
It should of happened that way

Woke up again this morning way to soon wish i was fast asleep and still with you i'd give anything if i could feel how i did when i was dreaming i could of sworn it was real repeat chorus

If we could have this chance again i only wish that we could be what we might have been I should of let you leave I could of made you stay

it should of happened that way
