Neal Morse, The Man Who Would Be King

I am a stranger in a desert land Wound up with nothing and I need a hand tonight Can't you see where I'm going A puppet on a string Can't you see who I am The man who would be king

I've got the talent, got the people skills I'm in the moment but the thing that kills me now No one sees were I'm going No one sees a thing No one knows who I am The man who would be king The man who would be king

I am a stranger in a desert land A paraplegic looking for a hand tonight No one knows were I'm goin' No one knows a thing No one sees who I am The man who would be king The man who would be king
