

Ned's Atomic Dustbin, Intact

here i stand the self-made victim i know that you didn't do anything i'm trying to make something from nothing you're wasting your breath on these ears
my dear
you will kill me someday if you have to cash me in i will have to be okay
you'll fry the contents of my head pretend and bend the words i said and kill me someday, stone dead i can't help but wish that i was virgo-intact oh i wouldn't care
'cause i just wouldn't know so don't say in this that you're all alone you founded the worst of these fears
and kill me someday, stone dead
