

Nedelle, Oh No!

It started easily like all of them do
Then after a while you'll beg for the truth
Make me a memory and do it with speed
Just open your eyes and follow my lead
Please learn to pray my boy
Don't come my way, oh no!
Cry on your own time

For all your episodes what have I to show
Just one fickle heart and we're all alone
Your mounting misery so tenderly meek
It can't find its way when you open to speak
Please learn to pray my boy
Don't come my way, oh no!
Cry on your own time
