

Nedelle, World Warrior

Penny penny, you're all mine
Against my sweater now you'll shine
Save until he comes back home
Find me wealthy and alone
When I wake up: darn this dream
I'll be working, I'm coming clean
In my glory you will see that I'm growing like a weed

Something tells me that all the other wars
Can't be nearly glamorous as ours
And I'll fight for you my love so true
I'll fight for you

Won't you bear the city on your back
Take me down to the windy tracks
All these things left at my feet
They've become a part of me
I found gold in your silver hair
Can't believe someday it won't be there
Every day is Christmas Eve
Every day you spend with me

Something tells me all the other wars
Aren't nearly as glamorous as ours
And I'll fight for you my love so true
I'll fight for you

Things you see in the night
You know they're never quite right
Oh but when you're here
Moaning in my ear
Something tells me all the other wars
Can't be nearly glamorous as ours
And I'll fight for you my love so true
I'll fight for you
Something tells me all the other wars
Aren't nearly as glamorous as ours
And I'll fight for you my love so true
I'll fight for you