

Needless To Say, It's All We Had

When the world was sharing secrets
We were having dreams of a world of patrant animals
Where doves have more meaning
When the world resorts to violence, we resort to reason
Fighting with emotions felt cause we are the ones
The ones! Who Lived! Who found our hearts
We're what we've said
We're what we've lived
We're what we've felt
