

Negative, In Memoriam (Immortal Peace)

Like seasons change their face
Rain like the tears, wind's got your voice whispering my name
Landing shadows come around
Telling me the same old story with certain sound

I'm stuck in a place
Prisoner of this room
Painful memories of me and you
I take colors of longing
And paint you on my wall
Is it too much to ask for some golden peace?
That's what I expect from you, at least
It's simple and understood: there's no way out

I wish that I would be dead
Dead like you and I
Falling like a butterfly
After one lived day

I hope you will find your peace
Immortal, eternal and real
I know I cannot be dead yet
Just can't live it again

Too much, never enough
We're stuck in time 'till death leads us away
In a moment that I'm scared of the most You're slipping away, soon you'll be lost
Every breath that you take, you'll be closer to where you belong
I never thought this could be so hard and rough
After all we've been through, can't get enough
Of the sweetest trip you once gave me as a gift

I wish that I would be dead
Dead like you and I
Falling like a butterfly
After one lived day

I hope you will find your peace
Immortal, eternal and real
I know I cannot be dead yet
Just can't live it again

I hope you're waiting for me somewhere out there
In a place where we can hold each other again
You went first, I'll come right after you
I'm depressed I don't care
I miss you, I hope you hear me
Wish that I would be dead
Dead like you and I
Falling like a butterfly
After one lived day

I hope you will find your peace
Immortal, eternal and real
I know I cannot be dead yet
Just can't live it again
