

Neil Diamond, Angel

Maybe tonight
I will say what's on my mind
But the words are oh so hard to find

When I try to speak
It comes out like nervous chatter
Then my knees get weak
And I can't stop shaking

I try to relax,
'Cause I must maintain my cool
She knows I'm here
If I don't make a move right now
She's goin' to disappear

Angel
I never met a girl that looks like you
Do-do-do do you even care

Angel
There's nothing in the world
That I won't do for you
Angel

I followed you home
And imagined me with you
Girl, I should have known
When I tried to dial your number
I'd hang up the phone
Angel, did you answer

Angel
I never met a girl that looks like you
Do-do-do do you even care

Angel
There's nothing in the world that
I won't do for you
Angel

And every time we meet
I feel like I got two left feet
And you,
You know what I'm goin' through

When I try to speak
It comes out like nervous chatter
Then my knees get weak
And I can't stop shaking

Angel
I never met a girl that looks like you
Do-do-do do you even care

Angel
There's nothing in the world
That I won't do for you
Angel

Angel
I never met a girl that looks like you
Do-do-do do you even care
Angel
