

Neil Diamond, Blue Destiny

How can I love
If my love doesn't love only me?
What have I done
To deserve love that never can be?

Once she was just mine alone,
Now she's just someone I've known
What can I do
To change my blue destiny?

First she decides
That our love will always be true,
Next thing I know,
She's runnin' with somebody new
I ask this heart every day
Can there be some other way?
What can I do
To change my blue destiny?

There were times
When love was new
And both our hearts were gay
Now, the signs say we're through
And bound for separate ways

First she decides
That our love will always be true
Next thing I know,
You're runnin' with somebody new
I ask my heart every day
Can there be some other way?
What can I do
To change my blue destiny?

Once you were mine
And wanted the whole world to know
Now ev'ry time I'm around
You got somewhere to go
Still I 'd forgive all your lies darlin'
I realize you, only you
Can change my blue destiny
