

Neil Diamond, Farewell, So Long, Goodbye

Farewell
To all of the heartaches you brought
So long
To all of the tears I cried
Goodbye
To the bitter lesson you taught
Farewell, so long, goodbye

Through with having you walk on me now
How many times can one person die?
Once I was blinded
But I can see now
Farewell, so long, goodbye

If there was some way to start again
I'd try it
But we both know
It never can be
Oh,
Wish I could say I won't even miss you
It's gonna hurt me and that's no lie
But I'll get hurt more if I stay with you
So Farewell, So long, Goodbye
