

Neil Sedaka, I Found My World In You

I FOUND MY WORLD IN YOU
Rome may have its Colosseum
And London Bridge may have its view
While others travel far
I'm staying where you are
I found my world in you
Let them waltz in gay Vienna
Or see the sites of old Peru
Let others cross the sea
Those things are not for me
I found my world in you
I hear them sing of Paris in the spring
Of ski trails on the Alpine snow
I hear them talk of autumn in New York
It may be fun but I don't care to go
There's one place where I'll be happy
Where all my wishes will come true
I'd rather settle down
Right here in our home town
I found my world in you
I hear them sing of Paris in the spring
Of ski trails on the Alpine snow
I hear them talk of autumn in New York
It may be fun but I don't care to go
There's one place where I'll be happy
Where all my wishes will come true
I'd rather settle down
Right here in our home town
I found my world in you
