

Neil Sedaka, Love Keeps Getting Stronger

Every night I say a little prayer
I lie in bed beside you and I thank go that you're there
Remembering how lonely life can be
Till heaven smiled and sent you down to me
I was born the moment that we met
It's been years and still the magic hasn't left me yet
Day by day the thrill goes on and on
The sparkle in your eyes has never gone

Chorus

Love keeps getting stronger every day
And it grows more beautiful in each and every way
And I swear I love you more
Than I did the day before

Love keeps getting stronger every day
And the things I'm feeling are impossible to say
Honey you'll just have to take my word
For all the lovely things you've never heard

Music

Love keeps getting stronger every day
All I really wanna do is spend my whole life loving you
Darling please believe me when I say

Love keeps getting stronger
Yeah it keeps on getting stronger
Love keeps getting stronger
Yeah it keeps on getting stronger
Every daaaaaay
