

Neil Young, Amber Jean

Every morning got sun to shine
Every day got plenty of time
Every night
there's a moon so fine
There for you, my Amber Jean.

Still some lines
that should get crossed Still some coins that might be tossed Still some love
that hasn't been lost
There for you, my Amber Jean.

Amber Jean, oh, Amber Jean, Prettiest eyes I've ever seen.

Every morning got sun to shine
Every day got plenty of time
Every night
there's a moon so fine
There for you, my Amber Jean.
