

Neil Young, Cowgirl In The Sand

Hello cowgirl in the sand
Is this place
    at your command
Can I stay here for a while
Can I see your sweet sweet smile
Old enough now
    to change your name
When so many love you
    is it the same?
It's the woman in you
    that makes you want
        to play this game.
Hello ruby in the dust
Has your band
    begun to rust
After all the sin we've had
I was hopin' that we'd turn back

Old enough now
    to change your name
When so many love you
    is it the same
It's the woman in you
    that makes you want
        to play this game.
Hello woman of my dreams
This is not the way it seems Purple words
    on a grey background
To be a woman
    and to be turned down
Old enough now
    to change your name
When so many love you
    is it the same
It's the woman in you
    that makes you want
        to play this game.
