

Neil Young, So Tired

Time for me to show my hand
Let them know just who I am
'Cause I've been down and back again.

I'm so tired of talking to strangers,
Close my eyes and I see the danger
I feel like making some changes.

So tired of talking to strangers,
Close my eyes and I see the danger
I feel like making some changes.
