Neil Young, Western Hero

Frontier town, home of the western hero Frontier justice, dealt with the iron hand

He wore a long coat to the ground He wore big boots that made a sound He wore a six gun on his hip But now he doesn't carry it

Sure enough, he was a western hero On the deck, sighting an old Jap zero

And on the shores at Normandy He fought for you, he fought for me Across the land and on the sea But now he's just a memory

And in the distance, the rocket's red glare The bombs burst in the air This time we're never going back

Through the years he changed somehow He's different now He's different now

Open fire, here comes the western hero Standing there, big money in his hand Sure enough, he was a western hero, Sure enough