

Neja, Shock

you're gonna have a shock in your life it's gonna be someone who really loves you the night you'll spread your wings and fly it's gonna be another lonely night you're gonna feel alright

until the morning
you wanna give a big kick to your life
you're gonna feel alright
until the morning

if love is growing in everything that you do it's gonna be the best night in your life too come on you just have to try I'm gonna show you tonight
just come into my way

it's gonna be someone who really loves you shock in your life
it's gonna be someone who makes you smiling
shock in your life
it's gonna be someone who really loves you

you've got a million dreams to realize you've got to recognize your mind is burning sometimes we need to be electrified to find the real life to keep us growing

if love is flowing in everything that you do
come on you just have to try
