

Neko Case, Bought And Sold

Lost love

You're the one that lies in my arms
You're the one that stole all my charms
I let you in

Misery

You took everything young from me
Burned it down right in front of me
My blood runs cold

Nobody said that love was gonna be kind
But they did say that it was pleasurable as it was divine

Lost love

You're the one that lies in my arms
You're the one that stole all my charms
I'm bought and sold

Nobody said that love was gonna be kind
But they did say it was pleasurable as it was divine

Wish I could leave it behind
Lost love
