

Nekromantix, Back From The Grave

ashes to ashes
dust to dust
darkness surrounds me in his subterranean dwell evil forces caused by lust no one to cry no one to tell haunting my demented mine happiness i'll never find back from the grave i don't know when i wish that i could see you again yeah see you yeah see you again conqeeror of torn our hearts cooped up in a world of shades and self-destructive greed see them gather watch them part see you one last time is all i need
