

Nekromantix, Backstage Pass To Hell

Nobody knows them
They're always around
Trying so hard to be cool
But what does it matter
If you wear the right gear
And turn out to be a fool

Backstage pass to hell
Enjoy the show
Purgatory vip for free

They'll do anything
Whatever it takes
Just as long
As they don't have to pay
I don't feel sorry
For these poor souls
What else can I say
I'm sure when they die
They'll cut a deal with the devil
Just to get on his list
They'll make him an offer
That not even satan can resist.
