Nekromantix, Gargoyles Over Copenhagen

I'm leaving town just wanna get away
From politics, stupid rules
& the eternal love war
A life in boredom is to high a price to pay
I'm headed in no direction
Just away from before
That's when the sky turrned jet-black
Eyes are watching me from above
& it ain't bad weather it's a gargoyle attack!

Gargoyles yeah yeah yeah gargoyles
Gargoyles over Copenhagen

I'm trying to escape, I'm on the run
From these hellsent creatures
They're all over me
Please help me someone dial 911
The invasion has begun
This is the end of humanity
Those years of waiting hasn't been in vain
They're leaving their observation posts
For the final take over They want worl domain
