

Nekromantix, Nekronauts

Dead numb & blind
Traveling With no purpose
Longing for the outside
Through a black hole mind
Can't wait to leave dead tissue
And head for that bright light

chorus:

Nekronaut Nekronaut
Explorer of the underworld
Nekronaut Nekronaut
Dark flower unfurl

Bitter cold as ice
Shapeless floating on and on
Never seen the sunlight
Don't expect they sympathize
In a never ending battle
For a seat on the next flight

Watching everything from six feet over ground
While the world is going down...

No sign's of life
But an army of darkness
Fighting a war they can't win
Aim, point and fire but there is not target
In a universe of nothing
