Nekromantix, Nice Day For Resurrection

I woke up,to the sound of screaming
In my face, virgin blood is streaming
Smell of death dying out around me
Pure & with grace
The victim has bled & I'm back alive

On my feet at the cemetery
Darkest deeds been taking place around here
Molested flesh, blood and bones all over
Oh what a mess, a creepy whisper
Sneaks up from beyond!

C'mon lick my bone
Never leave me alone
Take this heart of stone...
No one else........

Day by day, night after night
Never ever will be able to Hold each other tight
Within reach you slowly fade away
Oh what a sound of vampire whispers
& screams from the underworld

Then I knew just what to do
What I got I'll give to you
What a nice day for a resurrection
I can feel but we can't touch
Oh so near yet far apart
What a nice day for a resurrection
