

Nelson, Five O'Clock Plane

Someday, maybe one day
I will understand what I did to send your love away
Someday, maybe one day
I'll see through your eyes what made you cry and run away

'Cause I, I feel a changing of the seasons
I wonder why, but you're not givin' me a reason

Chorus:
Are we 1, or 2 far gone to say 3 words
"I love you"
Be4 you take that 5 o'clock plane, that's leaving
I'm so tired of tryin'
To count 8, 9, 10 ways I'll be dyin'
If you should take that five o'clock plane

Someday, baby, one day
As we reminisce we'll laugh at all this hearsay
Someday, maybe one day
You'll apologize when you've realized
I never lied to you anyway

Will I, just be a footnote on forever?
Testify- before you bury all I treasure

Chorus

Bridge:
All those nights we held each other
Body, mind and soul
I can't believe you'd ever let that go

Chorus:
Are we 1? Or 2 far gone?
If you should take that 5 o'clock plane...
