

Nemesis Army, Flow Into You

Confession for your sin
Deep inside this head you keep them in Fall so I can see
I'll show you
I'll show you sympathy
Sleep tonight
It's only you and I

Something for my head
I cannot take this
Something for this desperate life
I still cannot see

Take all that I am
Twist it round and shape it in your hand
Show me how to flow
Into you
Into the place I know
Sleep tonight
And race the morning light
