

Nena, Children of the revolution

Well you can bump and grind
And its good for your mind
Well you can twist and shout
Let it all hang out
But you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, no, no
Well you can tell a plane
In the falling rain
I drive a Rolls Royce
Cause its good for my voice
But you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, no, no
But you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, you wont fool the children of the revolution
No, no, no
