

Neneh Cherry, Peace In Mind

i've got a little piece of mind from the comfort of a stranger like vulture love does we took from each other justify desire with a verdict that comes empty when we exist
in the air that we breath in

acoustic
loneliness
incidental
relationships

chorus:
nothing in this time is done with peace in mind
so i claim a piece of this world to get peace in mind from memories i took to heart that left me colorblind so i'm taking daily bread and wine to keep me cool inside

i had a home
inside of me

acoustic
acoustic loneliness

i knew a young girl by the name of Suzie now she sleeps with her arm on a Uzi cause she sleeps giving up what she's got for free acousticly trained in love she talks in mono monologues

tomorrow's promisses
they have all just past away they slip through my fingers now their all
just history

chorus 2x

keep me cool inside
like the wind on me
my memories
coming to me
come on honey
aaw baby
let's take it slow
let's some bread
let's take some wine
let's spend some time
