

NEO, Feelings

Another glance
Another said Goodbye
Another tear
Another ... to dry ...

Another sight
Another thought asking, why?
Why do I care?
Why do I try?

Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same
You know
Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same

Another smile
Another leave that love
Another wall
Another reach that world
Another peace
Another I love you
Wherever you go
I will be with you!

Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same
You know
Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same

On and on and on again
Never ever end, in fin
Only one way to survive is to live
/2x

Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same
You know
Everybody feels the same
You know
Every day is not the same
