

Neon Horse, Little Lamb

Strapped in bitin' bullets for the last meal
O! Sparky for the deeds that you done
Came through like a call from the governor
Undercover girl, casting lovely pearls
With hook and line, she caught that eye
Don't question why, spider eats stupid fly
Buzz buzz bliss under silky killing kisses
Blackstrap molasses down the hatch to forget

Oooh
Pretty kitty caught your tongue
Turned out to be a lion, a viper, a saber-toothed tiger
Oh, no
And before you knew it you got swallowed whole

Put a number on the price of your penitence
Your dirty dollars and a silver tooth
Ain't enough to get you back in the saddle
Try a gallows and a handful of screws
With hook and line, shovel and lime
Surprise surprise, spider eats stupid fly
Naked desperation, you're giving and she's taking
The butcher to the baker, she's the hungry widow maker

Oooh
Pretty kitty caught your tongue
Turned out to be a lion, a viper, a saber-toothed tiger
Oh, no
And before you knew it you got swallowed whole
(Bottoms up)

Oooh
A lion, a viper, a saber-toothed tiger
Oh, no
Little lamb lost your way
What crawled across your grave?
You forgot your place and everyone can see the look on your face
(Bottoms up)
