

Neon Horse, Pretty Face Divided

Half a smile, half a scowl
Makes your pretty face divided in two
That's alright that's your life is not complicated
It's the best you can do

Trouble comin', people runnin', 'til the light goes out

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before
It's your calling, given to falling
Last ride of miss meteor

None to give, none that lives
Walking kiss of death looks good on you
I'll be gone
When you're done be sure to let me know
The great things that you do

Trouble comin', people runnin', 'til the light goes out

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before
It's your calling, given to falling
Last ride of miss meteor

Trouble comin', people runnin', 'til the light goes out

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before
It's your calling, given to falling
Last ride of miss meteor
