Neon Horse, Pretty Face Divided

Half a smile, half a scowl Makes your pretty face divided in two That's alright that's your life is not complicated It's the best you can do

Trouble comin', people runnin', 'til the light goes out

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before It's your calling, given to falling Last ride of miss meteor

None to give, none that lives Walking kiss of death looks good on you I'll be gone When you're done be sure to let me know The great things that you do

Trouble comin', people runnin', 'til the light goes out

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before It's your calling, given to falling Last ride of miss meteor

It's rainin', it's pourin', show me something I ain't seen before It's your calling, given to falling Last ride of miss meteor
