

Nerdeee, Cold

Keep my head way down
On this soft bed I sleep in
Trying to rise up
But something's wrong deep inside me

And I don't mind if you're not here with me
'Cause all I do is waste another day
And I am filled with bad blood inside out
And I don't care

Listening to the phone
Ring a thousand times
I pull the cord of the wall
Just to make sure that it's not you

And I don't know if I'm serious with myself
Don't care if a car drives over me today
I'm prepared to see the other side
All alone

With every move that you make
Little bit my heart you break
That's why it's made out of stone now
With every word that you say
Little bit my soul you take
That's why I'm a little bit cold now

Close my eyes for a while
I feel these memories trapped inside
There's no words left to say
This silent moment keeps on blinding

And I don't mind if you're not here with me
'Cause all I do is waste another day
And I am filled with bad blood inside out
And I don't care

With every move that you make
Little bit my heart you break
That's why it's made out of stone now
With every word that you say
Little bit my soul you take
That's why I'm a little bit cold now

But I put all the hope in the love
That I thought we shared
All the emotions and dreams
Though you never cared
I cried my tears on the nights
That you weren't here
And everything is clear

With every move that you make
Little bit my heart you break
That's why it's made out of stone now
With every word that you say
Little bit my soul you take
That's why I'm a little bit cold now (x2)"
