

Nerdie, Burning 4 U

You smile, you're so young and delicious
But on the inside, so mean and vicious
What I've learned is nothing is what it seems to be
You know my weakness, the switches to turn
Now you use it to make me burn
I trusted, now look what it's done to me

Time turned the table, I'm broken, unable
I am still burning for you
You blinded my eyes, you were snake
in paradise, oh still I am burning for you

Here I am, go on and make your selection
Will I get my dose of daily affection?
Keep me in hunger, but don't let me starve
Was it all just my imagination, or did you feel even the slightest connection?
All you left me was an everlasting scar.

Time turned the table, I'm broken, unable
I am still burning for you
You blinded my eyes, you were snake
in paradise, oh still I am burning for you
