

Neulander, Sometimes

Sometimes you know who you are,
sometimes you don't.
Sometimes you know where you are,
sometimes you won't.
Underneath, and overhead,
it's always there
you can feel the weight.

Sometimes you find time to rest in your mind,
for awhile.
And then you can see there's a reason to be
for awhile...

Sometimes you're hands are tied
and you talk like a machine,
you breathe,
...easy.
You forget, you succeed
and people gaze right down your neck,
...and sometimes you understand a lot of things...

Sometimes you find time to rest in your mind
for awhile.
And then you can see there's a reason to be
for awhile...

Sometimes you find time rest in your mind
for awhile.
And then you can see there's a reason to be
for awhile.
