

Neurotica, Easy Speak

Place all of your eyes on the words That bring the worlds together
Open are the ears of the blind
Favorites always earn them a place In the hearts of millions
Speaking for the ones without words and saying for ya
Hey I feel down maybe a little bit of Hey I was wrong and if your feeling more like
Hey I feel proud and when you needed it
It was loud
yeah it was Easy Speaking

Living without sounds that create that somewhat tranquil feeling
To say just what I thought I should say
Silence is a world without songs those inspired conversations
Speaking for the ones without words and saying for ya
