

Neurotica, I Like It (One Way)

I take my world in through eyes of gleam and sights unseen
But somehow I saw the dream
I'd dress the whole world in black cause they'd appear much leaner
When there's no rags to claim I feel much cleaner

I like it one way
I like it one way
Cause it's not all the same
It's not all the same
It's not all the same to me

I string my shoes up the same as all
But never falling through the cracks in my crystal ball
I still see no life in fail, succeed or compromise
It's all in the act of try, indeed see what I see

I like it one way
I like it one way
Cause its not all the same
It's not all the same
It's not all the same to me

Compromise
It's all in the act of try
Indeed see what I see
