

Neva Dinova, Blackest Heart

You think I haven't changed
I admit I must look the same
But I have been pushing my luck
I'm in trouble...

You try to make up a line
But you can't think of one
But I have been jumping the gun
I'm in trouble... divide

Something's under my skin
Divide and conquer, there's something under my skin
Blackest heart you've ever seen
Blackest heart you've ever seen

If I go now, you'll need a machine to take me
Blackest heart you've ever seen, it's a dream

It's a dream
It's a dream
It's a dream
