Neva Dinova, Blackest Heart

You think I haven't changed I admit I must look the same But I have been pushing my luck I'm in trouble...

You try to make up a line But you can't think of one But I have been jumping the gun I'm in trouble... divide

Something's under my skin Divide and conquer, there's something under my skin Blackest heart you've ever seen Blackest heart you've ever seen

If I go now, you'll need a machine to take me Blackest heart you've ever seen, it's a dream

It's a dream It's a dream It's a dream
