

Neva Dinova, Dragon (Bonus Track)

I'm looking at my dragon
He's looking back at me
He's wondering what I'm thinking
And I'm wondering
When will I see you
I'm thinking of a woman
She's thinking of a man
It's not who I expected
She never called me back
When will I see you
Oh dear it's just a pickle
When you're feeling five feet skinny
No, please I can't have any more friends
When will I see you again
I finally met my demon
He really ain't that bad
He thinks I really need him
He cares that I've been sad
He scorns my recent heartaches
He makes a joke of that
Oh dear it's just a pickle
When you're feeling five feet skinny
No, please I can't have any more friends
When will I see you again
