

Neva Dinova, Meetings For Surrender

(Note: The opening and subsequent background audio is taken from Franklin Delano Roosevelt's speech on December 8, 1941 regarding the attack on Pearl Harbor)

"...has caused severe damage to American naval and military forces. No matter how long it may takes us to overcome this premeditated invasion, the American people, in their righteous might, will win through to absolute victoy!"

You weren't a winner 'til you lost me
You weren't a winner 'til you lost me
Got your eyes all cleaned out Girl you're a winner now

you wanted dinner but I can't pay
you wanted dinner but I can't pay
There's roses in your world
You're a pretty girl

She's a sinner but that's okay
She's a sinner but that's okay
My sister's a sinner, I love her anyway

I want a girl I can throw away
I want someone I can leave today
I want dinner on the plate
I want a representative in the state to pray for me every day
