

Never Heard Of It, Escape

My pockets are full and they're weighing me down and i'm getting frusterated I hear you scream without hearing a sound my eyes are diolated
i feel like running now
i feel like hiding now
i feel like getting away to a far away place but i dont know how
it's not fun now
and i want to scream but i can't seem to talk can't seem to figure out what it is about the way that i feel but i want to feel this way again and i wanna go back to where i just came from don't want to be in this place where i am and i want to go back, back, back
it's not fun now
