

Never Heard Of It, No Regrets

it's done yes time has told the answers in a bottle and it's resting all alone

one time we were free to speak our mind how can you say you're happy? i can't even say i'm fine...

*whoa, what was once a good time had together now it's not fun
(i can't go on)
whoa, and i thought that this could last forever, i can't go on...
(now it's not fun)*

reflect, upon my intellect my hindsites 20-20 and there's no time for regrets thin walls connect the empty halls they've lasted until now and they're finally breaking down chorus mm

I feel so left out in this empty Space I can't waste all my days When it's not time well spent Don't know who I am or where I should be but right now I know That this isn't for me

chorus

Don't forget, dont regret we'll always have the time we spent Don't forget don't regret we'll always have the time we spent

Chorus

No regrets (3)
I can't go on sorry if i got some of it wrong, i was diong it by ear! I tried!
