

Neverending White Lights, Life Is A Dead Scene

Count the lives you live
Don't trust to forgive
Crawl into her eyes
No one is alive

God take me home
I won't belong
My life is dead

Take my breath tonight
Make things seem alright
Death will show you how
She's got you longing now

Who can I trust
Life means so much
Who can I be
My life is dead

So don't you ever
See my with your eyes
Trust me with your eyes
Kill me with your eyes
