

NEVERLAND IN ASHES, Liar

I have nothing to show for
But I built my truth
Got my heart wrapped in tin

Dancing on the graves of the betrayed
Blackened skies illuminate my sins
I, the masquerader hide my cries
I will sing my truth on the stage of lies

No! Trust me I won't lie
Can we start over, grow closer again?
Go! Trust me I won't hide
Believe me if I say I'm lost for words
Forgive me if I never showed my cards
But I am
A liar

Gotta keep my finger of the trigger
Before I shoot myself in the foot
Gotta store away my anger before I light the fuse

Dancing on the graves of the betrayed
Blackened skies illuminate my sins
I, the masquerader hide my cries
I will sing my truth on the stage of lies

No! Trust me I won't lie
Can we start over, grow closer again?
Go! Trust me I won't hide
Believe me if I say I'm lost for words
Forgive me if I never showed my cards
But I am
A liar

One of the two is probably true you believe me and i believe you Do you know how painful lies are?
but do not forget
Lies don't travel far

I twist my life so it's tasty to the lazy
I'm the masquerader hiding, maybe
I am addicted to the way she Doesn't see the crazy

No! Trust me I won't lie
Can we start over, grow closer again?
Go! Trust me I won't hide
Believe me if I say I'm lost for words
Forgive me if I never showed my cards
But I am
A liar
