

Nevertheless, Patience And Devotion

Sweet Patience, the product of our love.
We can rise above together.
We'll make it though rain fills the sky.
We can fly through any weather.

Take heart tonight.
We were made for flight,
but it's faith that takes us there.

Oh, emotions take us for a ride, till all of our insides are screaming.
This devotion is what we were made for,
but now we're wanting more than dreaming.

Take heart tonight.
We were made for flight,
but it's faith that takes us there.
We want more than dreaming,
and we are screaming Love,
but it's faith that takes us there.

We've held hostage our desires and put the water to the fire for so long.
We've been so strong.

Take heart tonight.
We were made for flight, but it's faith that takes us there.
We want more than dreaming, and we are screaming Love, but it's faith that takes us there. It takes us there.
