

Neville Aaron, In Your Eyes

Aaron Neville/ Pamela Hayes

I can see it in your eyes
You're telling me a lie
When you say you love me
And there's something in your smile
Said you'd be gone in a while
I can hear in your talk
Your about to take a walk
So darling please don't lie
I've been knowing you way too long
So don't say there's nothing wrong
You can never fool me, no how
I can see it in your eyes
But you try to disguise
I can feel it in your touch
You've fallen out of love
You could tell me that I'm wrong
My heart knows that I'm right
I can see it in your eyes
So if it's over, let it be over
I'd rather face the truth
Than have to make believe
Your feelings haven't changed
Yes I'll be alright,
After you say goodbye
But I know that I'll be missing you
For a long time
Chorus
You can tell me that I'm wrong
My heart knows I'm right
I can see it in your eyes
