

New Buffalo, Misery And Mountains, Arrows And my body's broken / I'm not ashamed dangerous token / guilty with pain tell them my story / beginning to end bring me my sweetheart / I wanna see him everyone has their own divine can't find a comfort / prayers with wine is this my weakness? / do I care?

I need a partner / I need someone there gifted and blessed / seeds you can sow misery and mountains / arrows and bows masculine memories / famine and rain bring me my sweetheart / I wanna see him again
