

New Buffalo, Versary

Yes I knew her name
It was written in the sky
She was wearing what I like
The colour caught my eye

Later on that night
With my mattress in the light
Got a ticket and a fright
I brought this on myself tonight

I was afraid to sleep
I knew when I caught her eye
She'd be dancing on the rooftops
Chasing some other guy
Diamonds in her pockets
When she jumps her dress is torn
Here she is beside me
Stretched out on the lawn

Grow up, yeah smile,
This is here, this is now
You'll have tears in your eyes
For a while, for a while

Her house is different
That's because she cares
What's hanging from the stereo
She made with her own hands
Pictures on her walls remind her
What she's living for
Da da da da dah, da da da da dah

Grow up, yeah smile,
This is here, this is now
You'll have tears in your eyes
For a while, for a while
